

Oceanside Conservation Trust of Casco Bay

38TH ANNUAL MEETING

On

Little Diamond Island or Online

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2020

1:30-2:30

 RAIN OR SHINE OR ONLINE ***

SPECIAL RECOGNITIONS AND BUSINESS MEETING

Join Oceanside Conservation Trust's (OCT) Annual Meeting on
Little Diamond Island at the upper Putnam parcel.

Featuring a celebration of the permanent preservation of two remarkable parcels of land on Little Diamond Island. Guest speaker Harry Pringle will speak about the unusual history of the site. You will also hear from residents who were committed to the Putnam Lots Acquisition project.

LIGHT REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED AT THE EVENT.

DETAILS OF THE DAY

RSVP:

To reserve your space please call Roger Berle at 712-5565 or email: rkberle@msn.com

GUEST SPEAKER:

Harry Pringle and residents from Little Diamond Island.

LOCATION AND TIME:

1:30p.m.-2:30p.m.

Little Diamond Island at the upper Putnam parcel.

We will take COVID-19 precautions at the outdoor event including a maximum of 50 people in attendance, social distancing, hand sanitizing, and face coverings. If you do not feel well or others in your close circle are not well, please stay home and watch the online event recording instead.

ONLINE:

Join us at www.oceansideconservationtrust.org where you will have access to the recorded event for on-demand viewing.

TRANSPORTATION:

From Portland: Attendees can take the Casco Bay Line Ferry, leaves Portland at 12:00.

From Falmouth: Attendees can take the Freedom, leaves Handy Boat in Falmouth at 12:00.

DRESS:

Please wear comfortable clothes and shoes for the Island. This is rain or shine, so check the forecast; you may want rain gear.

COST:

Free to members. You may pay the $20 membership fee to renew your membership or to join Oceanside Conservation Trust.